MATTHEW KNIGHT ARENA

MATT ARENA

Matthew Knight Arena opened its doors on Jan. 13, 2011, to a sold-out crowd of 12,364 as the Oregon men's basketball christened the new palace with a 68-62 victory over USC. The building, named after the late son of NIKE Co-Founder Phil Knight, is located on the east side of UO's campus.

Officials broke ground on Matthew Knight Arena on Feb. 7, 2009, as the 420,000 square-foot masterpiece was constructed in less than two years. Matt Arena was erected to replace legendary McArthur Court, which opened on January 14, 1927. Known as one of the toughest venues in the country for opponents, Mac Court was the second-oldest on-campus arena still in use before Matthew Knight Arena opened its doors.

Also known as "The Pit," Sporting News named it the "the best gym in America" as sports writer and arena researcher Bill Kintner placed Mac Court his top five of college basketball arenas in America for its history, character, and atmosphere.

Mac Court was a passion incubator. The geometry of the place not only shoved fans close to amplify the intensity of emotion, it put fans on top of the action, making them feel like they were an integral part of the play on the floor, and able to usher their Ducks to victory through the force of their energy and collective will. Fans didn't just go to Mac Court to watch a game; fans went to live it.

To recreate the same passion and experience at Matthew Knight Arena, the new venue was fashioned with the same close connection to the student-athletes and the action; by making the fans feel like they are an integral part of the game.

Matthew Knight Arena is a monument to all Oregon fans and their common love for Oregon, and the exciting energy that happens when all join together to cheer for the Ducks.

MATT ARENA

MATT

MATTHEW KNIGHT ARENA

There are several areas throughout the arena, including the club areas, team spaces and concessions that tie the Oregon brand together. Three major displays on the concourse are the Anthem to the Fan, the Hero Graphics and the Shroud Wall. Each tells different parts of the story. The Shroud Wall is primarily about heritage, energy and progression.

Hero Graphics celebrate Oregon's great student-athletes and great moments--past and present. The Anthem to the Fan is about common devotion. Together, they express the sense of connection and ownership, the unique and proud heritage, the wild passion, and the unrelenting quest for more championships to come. This Land of the Tall Firs is a special place, inhabited by people who care more deeply about a team that fights even harder.

The unique floor design at Matthew Knight Arena is a nod to the Tall Firs, the nickname of Oregon's National Championship basketball squad in 1939. The one of its kind perspective is looking up from a clearing in the forest that celebrates Oregon's beautiful environment.

Kilkenny Floor is a homage to the family of former athletics director Pat Kilkenny. Three logos represent Heppner, Ore., with the Morrow County Courthouse; an interlocking UO with three shamrocks; and the beach/sunset of San Diego. These images honor the hometown of the Kilkenny's, the Irish pride and logo of Oregon during Pat's era as a student, and Pat's love of San Diego where he calls home today.

Matthew Knight Arena rivals Hass Pavilion for the tightest, steepest seating bowl in the Pac-12, and there are unobstructed sightlines to the total playing surface for all seats. The lower bowl of Matt Arena is closer to the floor and steeper than Mac Court. The West Endzone seating is as steep as code allows – over 36 degrees.

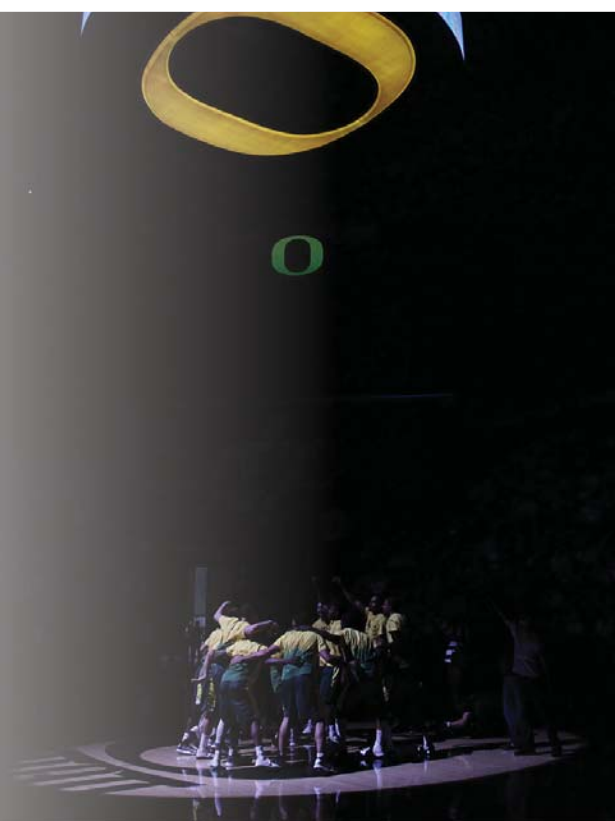

The center hung KnightVision boards are the largest (12'8" high and 18'11" high) and highest resolution (6mm) video boards on a scoreboard in an NCAA arena. Only the recently opened Amway Center (NBA Orlando Magic) has larger screens at this resolution.

In addition, Matt Arena has four hustle boards located at the corners of the seating bowl for game stats and 270 degree LED ribbon boards located at front of upper seating bowl.

There are two regulation-size basketball court and one regulation-size volleyball practice courts.

On the floor level, Matt Arena has spacious on-site athletic training and weight training facilities as well as a nutrition bar.

The men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball team locker rooms and lounges also have state of the art technology for game days, practices and studying purposes.

MATT ARENA

MATTHEW KNIGHT ARENA FACTS

Matthew Knight Arena hopes to be the first LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Gold certified Arena in the NCAA. LEED provides standards to recognize Green buildings. A kiosk explaining Matthew Knight Arena's LEED features is located on the main concourse near the West entrance.

- A smile, and a Japanese-inspired Torii gate shape, (A Torii gate is a symbol of a sacred place in Japanese culture).
- Curved arena forms that connect the Oregon Graphic Identity with the heroic proportions of the arena architecture.

Dana Altman is one of only six active coaches in NCAA Division I with 20 consecutive winning seasons. He is part of an exclusive fraternity that includes Hall-of-Famers Mike Krzyzewski, Tom Izzo, Roy Williams, Bill Self and Jim Boeheim. He enters the 2017-18 season needing just three more wins to become the 34th NCAA Division I coach to reach 600 career wins all-time, and just the 10th active coach to reach 600. In 2016-17, Altman led Oregon back to the Final Four for the first time in 78 years.

The 2013 National Coach of the Year and three-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year has won more games in his first seven seasons than any coach in Oregon history. Altman is 187-70 in Eugene, and 597-313 in 28 seasons as a head coach at the NCAA Division I level in stints at Oregon, Creighton, Kansas State and Marshall.

Altman, the 19th head coach in the history of the University of Oregon men's basketball program, has led the Ducks to seven consecutive 20-win seasons and seven postseason appearances, including five straight NCAA Tournaments for the first time in school history, winning at least one game in each of those years. Included in those NCAA appearances are a Final Four (2017), two Elite Eights (2016, 2017) and three of Sweet 16s (2013, 2016, 2017). Altman now has 19 seasons of 20-plus wins to his credit (11 at Creighton, seven at Oregon, one at Kansas State).

Oregon entered the 2016-17 season with lofty expectations, and the Ducks lived up to every one of them. The Ducks won the Pac-12 title for the second consecutive season and advanced to the Final Four for the first time since the 1939 Webfoots won the very first NCAA title. Along the way, Oregon won a program-record 33 games and also reached a high-water mark for conference victories with 16. Dillon Brooks was named the Pac-12 player of the year and a consensus all-American, while Jordan Bell was the Pac-12 defensive player of the year and the NCAA Midwest Regional most outstanding player. Jordan, Brooks and Tyler Dorsey were all selected in the 2017 NBA Draft.

The 2015-16 season saw Altman reach new heights as a coach and achieve honors matched only by some of the very best mentors in the history of the Pac-12 Conference. Altman guided Oregon to the Pac-12's regular season and conference title in the same year for the first time in school history. He also reached the NCAA's Elite Eight for the first time and was named Pac-12 Coach of the Year for the third time in four seasons, a feat matched only by Hall of Famer Lute Olson of Arizona. The individual honors won by players under his guidance included all-American Brooks, Pac-12 Tournament MOP Elgin Cook, Pac-12 all-defensive selection Chris Boucher and Pac-12 all-freshman pick Dorsey.

In 2014-15, in one of the finest coaching performances of his career, Altman guided a team that had only three returning scholarship players to a 26-10 record, a runner-up finish in the Pac-12 (13-5) and the third round of the NCAA Tournament. He was the runaway choice for Pac-12 Coach of the Year, while Joseph Young tied the school single-season scoring record in being named Pac-12 Player of the Year. Cook was an all-Pac-12 second-team selection, while Bell and Brooks made the Pac-12's all-freshman team.

The 2013-14 season saw Altman win his 500th game as a Division I head coach when Oregon defeated Washington on Feb. 19. He also joined Basketball Hall of Famer Howard Hobson as the only men to lead Oregon to four consecutive 20-win seasons. He guided Oregon to a 24-10 overall record and an NCAA Tournament win. Young was an all-conference second team selection and an all-Pac-12 tournament pick, while Mike Moser was an honorable mention selection by the conference.

Altman's 2012-13 Oregon Ducks became the first UO team since 2008 to qualify for the NCAA Tournament. The Ducks finished the season 28-9 and won the Pac-12 Tournament. Altman was named the Pac-12 Coach of the Year before going on to earn Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year honors. Senior E.J. Singler was an all-league first team selection, while Johnathan Loyd was named Most Outstanding Player of the Pac-12 Tournament as the honors were spread around nearly the entire team. Senior Arsalan Kazemi was a Pac-12 all-defensive pick before going on to become a second round draft choice of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers.

During the 2011-12 season, Altman led the Ducks to a 24-10 overall record and a 13-5 Pac-12 Conference mark which was good for a share of second place in the final league standings. The Ducks earned a bid to the National Invitation Tournament and recorded victories over LSU and Iowa before falling at top-seed Washington in the tournament quarterfinals. Under Altman's tutelage, Devoe Joseph became the first Duck since the 2006-07 season to be named first team all-conference, while Singler was named to the all-conference second team.

In his first season at Oregon, Altman led the Ducks to just the 12th season of 20+ victories in the history of the program. He became just the third UO head coach to tally 20+ wins in his first season on the job. Oregon went 21-18 overall and 7-11 in Pac-12 play. Altman posted the second-highest win total of any first-year UO head coach.

DANA ALTMAN COACHING FACTS

- Dana Altman has made 20-straight postseason appearances and posted 20 consecutive winning seasons.
- Altman now has 19 seasons of 20+ wins to his credit (seven at Oregon, 11 at Creighton, one at Kansas State).
- Altman is the only coach in school history to lead Oregon to seven consecutive 20-win seasons.
- Altman led Oregon to NCAA Tournament wins in five consecutive seasons for the first time in school history.
- Altman has finished .500 or better in 25 of his 29 seasons as a NCAA Division I head coach.
- Altman has been to the NCAA Tournament 13 times, including the Final Four in 2017, back-to-back trips to the Elite 8 in 2016 and 2017, and three Sweet 16s (2013, 2016, 2017).

Only John Warren (30 wins in 1944-45) posted more in his first year on the sidelines. The 2011 postseason included a pair of wins at the Pac-10 Tournament, highlighted by a 76-59 upset win over No. 2-seed UCLA in the quarterfinals. Oregon participated in the 2011 College Basketball Invitational, defeating Altman's former team – Creighton – in the best-of-three championship series.

Altman arrived at UO after spending 16 seasons at Creighton where he became the school's all-time winningest coach with a record of 327-176 (.650). He led the Blue Jays to 13 consecutive postseason appearances, a stretch of 11 straight seasons with 20-plus wins, all while producing 10 or more league victories in each of the last 14 seasons. Those three feats were unmatched in the 103 years of the Missouri Valley Conference.

He won four Coach-of-the-Year awards from three different conferences in a span of 13 seasons, including back-to-back MVC coaching honors while he was at the Omaha, Neb., school in 2001 and 2002. Altman was a finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year Award and was named the NABC District 12 and USBWA District VI Coach of the Year following the 2002-03 campaign.

Creighton participated in seven NCAA Men's Basketball Tournaments and five National Invitation Tournaments under Altman, advancing to the second round of the NCAA championships in both the 1998-99 and 2001-02 seasons. He led the school to a MVC regular-season title in 2000-01 - its first in 10 years. The Bluejays posted a school-record 29 wins in 2002-03, finishing the season 15th in the Associated Press poll and 23rd in the coaches' voting.

Altman finished his career at Creighton ranking third all-time on the MVC list of all-time wins (327), trailing only Basketball Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba (486) and Eddie Hickey (337). In 2007, he was one of 10 coaches named as part of the MVC's All-Centennial Team. His teams claimed shares of three regular-season Missouri Valley Conference championships (including the 2008-09 crown) and six conference post-season tournament titles.

Student-athletes under his direction at CU earned six All-America honors on the court and four Academic All-America laurels in the classroom. Three players he coached at Creighton - Kyle Korver, Rodney Buford and Anthony Tolliver - have played in the NBA.

Altman compiled a 68-54 record in four seasons (1990-94) at Kansas State. During that time, Altman led the Wildcats to three straight postseason tourneys and was named the Big Eight Conference Coach of the Year after leading KSU to a 19-11 record and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 1993.

Altman's final Kansas State club turned heads nationally with a 68-64 win at No. 1 Kansas on Jan. 17, 1994. K-State eventually advanced to play in the NIT Final Four. Altman's success at KSU followed him from a brief head coaching stint at Marshall where he was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year in 1990.

Tony Stubblefield is in his eighth season as an assistant coach with the University of Oregon men's basketball program. Stubblefield has more than 20 years of coaching experience at the college level.

Stubblefield came to the Ducks after spending four years as an assistant at the University of Cincinnati, serving as the Bearcats' recruiting coordinator from 2006-10.

Prior to joining the staff at Cincinnati, Stubblefield served as assistant coach at New Mexico State for six seasons, one of which he served as interim head coach. He was responsible for all aspects of the basketball program at New Mexico State. Prior to the start of the 2004-05 season, he was elevated to interim head coach when Lou Henson's health forced him to miss the season.

As recruiting coordinator for the Aggies, Stubblefield attracted three national Top-100 rated players, including one McDonald's All-American, a junior college all-American, and first-team all-state high school players from six different states.

Prior to his tenure at New Mexico State, Stubblefield was the lead assistant and recruiting coordinator at the University of Texas-Arlington for four seasons. He successfully recruited two Top-10 prospects from the state of Texas along with first-team all-region junior college players from Texas, Louisiana, Alabama, and Mississippi.

Stubblefield began his coaching career as a student assistant for two seasons at the University of Nebraska at Omaha, his alma mater, where he completed his undergraduate degree in 1995.

Stubblefield, who transferred to UNO following two years at Clinton (Iowa) Community College, earned two letters playing guard at Nebraska-Omaha where he was the team captain his senior season.

Upon graduation from UNO, he became an assistant coach at the University of Texas-San Antonio for the 1995-96 season, where he was responsible for coaching the guards and was the program's top recruiter.

In high school, Stubblefield was one of the top players in the state of Colorado. He was the runner-up for state Player of the Year honors at Bloomfield (Colo.) High School his senior season, while picking up first-team all-state and Boulder County Player of the Year accolades.

Kevin McKenna is in his eighth season as assistant coach with the Oregon men's basketball program. McKenna spent nine years as an assistant coach under Dana Altman at Creighton University prior to becoming the head coach at Indiana State, where he coached from 2007-10.

McKenna has more than 25 years of coaching experience, including seven years as a head college coach in stints at both ISU and Nebraska-Omaha.

His 2009-10 Sycamores recorded the program's first winning season since 2001. ISU also reached postseason play for the first time in nine years when it accepted a bid to the 2010 College Basketball Invitational. The Sycamores' success, despite being devastated by injury for the greater portion of the Missouri Valley Conference slate, led McKenna to being tabbed as the MVC Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com.

The Sycamores finished the 2009-10 season as the nation's No. 2 free throw shooting team. ISU's 76.9 percent mark at the line finished just behind NCAA Tournament qualifier BYU on the Division I list.

At ISU, McKenna mentored Harry Marshall to Second Team All-MVC and MVC's All-Defensive Team recognition. He also helped Jay Tunnell to All-MVC Honorable Mention and MVC Most Improved Team honors. In addition, Jordan Printy and Aaron Carter were tabbed as MVC All-Scholar Athletes under McKenna's watch. He compiled a 43-52 overall record while posting a MVC mark of 24-30 in three seasons at ISU.

In the summer of 2009, McKenna was selected as the head coach of the Athletes In Action college basketball team during a tour of Poland and Germany. He led the team on an 11-day summer tour playing contests in Katowice, Poland as well as Berlin, Germany. The AIA team was comprised of NCAA Division I basketball players.

Before accepting the head coaching position at ISU, McKenna completed nine seasons at Creighton as an assistant coach. During that time the Bluejays went to four NCAA Tournaments as well as two National Invitation Tournaments. McKenna made the first of two stops on the Bluejays' bench from 1994 through 2001, and then returned in 2005.

Before McKenna returned to Creighton, he spent four years across town as head coach at Nebraska-Omaha. He guided the Mavericks to four consecutive 20-win seasons, two North Central Conference titles and three appearances in the NCAA Division II Tournament.

McKenna was named the NCC Coach of the Year in both 2004 and 2005 as well as North Central Regional Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2005. He finished with an 89-33 mark in his tenure at UNO which included a conference mark of 40-20 (.667).

As a player at Creighton from 1977-81, McKenna led the Bluejays to a MVC regular-season championship, two MVC Tournament titles and a pair of NCAA Tournaments. He was an All-MVC pick and team MVP in each of his final two seasons.

McKenna ended his collegiate career with exactly 1,500 points and was drafted in the fourth round of the 1981 draft by the Los Angeles Lakers. He was a member of the Lakers' 1982 NBA championship team and also played for Indiana, New Jersey and Washington during a six-year NBA career.

He remains the only person in MVC history to win a regular-season title, tournament title, NBA championship and CBA crown.

Following his NBA career, McKenna helped lead the La Crosse Catbirds to the 1989-90 CBA Championship as a player and assistant coach. He then served as the head coach and director of basketball operations for the CBA's Sioux Falls Skyforce from 1990-93. He spent time as a regional scout for the Washington Bullets in 1993-94 before returning to Creighton as an assistant to Altman in 1994.

He earned his bachelor's degree in organizational communications from Creighton in 1993 and added a master's degree in counseling education from his alma mater in 1997. McKenna and his wife, Nancy, have a daughter, Megan, and a son, Bobby.

ASSISTANT COACH

Veteran assistant coach Mike Mennenga is in his fourth season with Oregon.

Mennenga came to Oregon after spending the previous two seasons at Canisius, where he helped lead the Golden Griffins to 62 victories and three postseason tournaments. He worked with Canisius' guards and also was instrumental in getting the men's basketball program active in the local Buffalo community through a series of youth basketball clinics.

Prior to Canisius, the native of Rantoul, Ill., spent one year as an assistant on the Illinois-Chicago coaching staff in 2010-11, where he helped with player development, opponent scouting and recruiting.

Before his time at Providence, Mennenga was an assistant basketball coach at the Nichols School in Buffalo from 2007-09. At Nichols, he helped guide the Vikings to a mark of 48-6 over two seasons.

Mennenga served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Iowa State University during the 2005-06 season, as the Cyclones boasted the top scoring offense in the Big XII and saw four student-athletes receive academic all-conference accolades.

During his five-year tenure at Buffalo (2001-05), Mennenga filled many roles, including assistant basketball coach, recruiting coordinator and NCAA compliance staffer. During the 2004-05 campaign, the Bulls won 24 games and earned their first postseason berth with an NIT appearance. His recruiting classes from 2003-05 were each ranked first in the Mid-American Conference by Rivals.com.

Mennenga began his Division I career as an assistant at Maine from 1997-2000. The Black Bears set school records in wins, attendance and all-conference selections during that time period.

In addition to his college coaching experience, Mennenga served as co-director of youth basketball programs in Buffalo and Toronto, as well as being an analyst for Time Warner Cable SportsNet in Buffalo and a college basketball contributor to the FAN Radio Network in Toronto.

Mennenga earned his associate's degree from Vincennes University in 1990 and his bachelor's degree in finance from Morehead State University in 1993, where he was a member of the basketball team. He and his wife Shanetta have two daughters, Cheyenne and Nyla.

THE STARTING FIVE

Oregon made a triumphant return to the NCAA Final Four for the first time since the Tall Firs won the very first NCAA Championship in 1939. Along the way, the Ducks won a program-best 33 games and captured the Pac-12 title for the second year in a row.

1 Oregon set five school season records in 2016-17: wins (33), points (3,076), field goals (1,091), assists (614) and blocks (248). The 248 blocks were also a Pac-12 record, breaking the mark of 224 set by Washington just one year earlier.

2 The Ducks are one of just five teams to have won a game in each of the last five NCAA Tournaments. The other teams are Gonzaga, Kansas, North Carolina and Wichita State.

3 With a program record-setting 33rd victory in the Midwest Regional final, Oregon, North Carolina, Kansas and Villanova were the only four teams in the nation to have won 30 games each of the last two seasons. Overall, it was just the third 30-win season for the Ducks, joining 2015-16 (31) and 1944-45 (30). There were only 12 teams in the nation with 30-plus wins in 2016-17, three of which (Oregon, Arizona, UCLA) were in the Pac-12.

4 Oregon's NCAA Tournament career leaders in all but one category were on the 2016-17 team. Dillon Brooks is the Ducks' all-time NCAA scoring (162), field goals (59) and assists (32) leader, Jordan Bell holds the top spot in rebounds (114) and blocks (33), Tyler Dorsey is tops in three-pointers (25) and Casey Benson is tied for first in steals (11).

5 Oregon recorded a number of historic milestones in program history:

- * School-record 33 wins.
- * First Final Four since 1939.
- * 5 straight NCAA Tournament appearances.
- * Back-to-back Elite Eight appearances.
- * 16 conference wins is the most in UO history.
- * Nation-best and program-record 42 consecutive wins at home.
- * Second straight undefeated season at home (17-0).
- * Seventh straight 20-win season.
- * Seventh straight winning season for the first time in 77 years.
- * 20 straight winning seasons as a head coach for Dana Altman.
- * Program-record 187 wins over seven seasons.
- * Program-record 166 wins over six seasons.
- * Program-record 142 wins over five seasons.
- * Program-record 114 wins over four seasons.
- * Program-record 90 wins over three seasons.
- * Final ranking of No. 3 (USA Today) is the program's highest ever.

WINNING THE PERCENTAGES

Oregon's winning percentage of .846 (33-6) was the fifth-best in program history. That mark trails the .857 from the 1927-28 (18-3), 1926-27 (24-4) and 1911-12 (12-2) seasons. The 1939 NCAA Champions are fourth (29-5/.853), with the 2015-16 squad (31-7/.816) sixth. The 16 conference wins was also a program best. The Ducks' previous high was 14 in 1938, 1939, 2002 and 2016.

2016-17 REVIEW

NCAA THREE DOT DATA

Stating the obvious, Oregon's 77-year drought in between Final Fours was the longest in NCAA history ... Oregon appeared in its program-best fifth straight NCAA Tournament; the previous best was two consecutive years ... It was Oregon's second appearance in the Final Four (1939) ... It was also just the third time that both the UO men and women have advanced to the NCAA Tournament (1995, 2000, 2017), and it is the first time that both programs won a Tournament game in the same year ... Jordan Bell, Casey Benson, and Dillon Brooks joined former teammate Elgin Cook as the only Oregon players to play in three NCAA Tournaments ... In the Sweet 16 round against Michigan, Tyler Dorsey became just the second player in program history to reach 1,000 career points as a sophomore, joining teammate Dillon Brooks who did that in 2015-16 ... Dorsey finished the season with 1,055 career points ... Jordan Bell set a UO NCAA Tournament record with eight blocks versus Kansas; that was one off Chris Boucher's school record of nine.

DORSEY AND BELL CATCH THE NCAA BY STORM

The postseason play of Jordan Bell and Tyler Dorsey impressed many around the country. Dorsey earned his "Mr. March" moniker by scoring 20-plus points in eight straight games. He scored the game-winner in both the NCAA second round win against Rhode Island and the Sweet 16 win against Michigan. Bell became the first player with six consecutive NCAA Tournament games of 12 or more rebounds since Houston's Hakeem Olajuwon in 1985. Bell closed out the season with seven straight double-figure rebounding games, including a career-high 16 against North Carolina. He had five double-doubles in his last six games. Bell also set the UO single-season record for field goal percentage (.636, 171-of-269), and his 342 rebounds for the year were the seventh-most in UO history.

MIDWEST REGIONAL HONORS

Jordan Bell was named the Midwest Regional's Most Outstanding Player for his efforts against Michigan and Kansas, while Dillon Brooks and Tyler Dorsey were named to the all-region team. Bell neared a triple-double against Kansas with 11 points, 13 rebounds and eight blocks. He had 16 points and 13 rebounds against the Wolverines. Dorsey had 27 points against the Jayhawks and 20 against Michigan. Brooks had 17 points and four assists against Kansas and 12 points and five assists versus Michigan.

BROOKS, BELL LEAD PAC-12 HONORS

Dillon Brooks was named Pac-12 player of the year in a vote of conference coaches. In addition, Jordan Bell was named Pac-12 defensive player of the year. Brooks was Oregon's lone member of the 10-player all-conference first team, Bell was a second-team pick and Chris Boucher and Tyler Dorsey earned honorable mention. Brooks is the fifth conference player of the year in program history and the second in three years. Brooks returned from a foot injury in time to help the Ducks stabilize themselves following a 2-2 start. Brooks was at his best in big moments, hitting game-winning three-pointers Dec. 28 in Oregon's Pac-12 opener against UCLA, and at California on Feb. 22. He also made the game-winning three-pointer with :22 left in overtime versus Tennessee in the Maui Invitational. Additionally, Brooks scored the Ducks' final 12 points in a one-point win over Arizona State on Feb. 4. Bell became Oregon's first ever Pac-12 defensive player of the year. He was the only player ranked in the top 13 of the league in rebounds, steals and blocks. Bell was joined on the conference all-defensive team by Boucher; that duo helped the Ducks break the Pac-12 record with 248 blocks in a season. On the academic side, Casey Benson was a second-team selection, while Dylan Ennis and Charlie Noebel were honorable mention picks.

ALL-AMERICA HONORS ROLLING IN FOR CANADIAN

Mississauga, Ontario, Canada native Dillon Brooks was selected as one of five finalists for the 2017 Julius Erving Small Forward of the Year Award. Brooks was joined on the ballot by Josh Hart of Villanova, Josh Jackson of Kansas, Justin Jackson of North Carolina and Jayson Tatum of Duke. Brooks, a consensus second team all-American, garnered eight all-America honors. He was an all-first team selection by USA Today and the Wooden Award, a second-team pick by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the NABC, USBWA and Basketball Times, and merited third-team status from NBC Sports. USA Today was the first organization to honor a UO player with first-team all-American recognition since Aaron Brooks was named to the Wooden Award first team in 2007. Luke Jackson received first-team accolades from ESPN, The Sporting News and Basketball Times in 2004.

IN THE POLLS

Dating back to the 2015-16 season, Oregon was ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for a school-record 27 consecutive weeks. The previous mark was 21 weeks that first occurred over the 2006-07 and 2007-08 seasons.

DUCKS REACH HIGH MARK IN POLLS

Oregon was ranked No. 3 in the 2016-17 USA Today postseason poll, which is the highest the Ducks have ever been ranked in any poll. The Ducks' ranking of No. 4 by the Associated Press in the Nov. 14 poll was Oregon's highest-ever ranking by A.P. The previous high was No. 5, which happened in the 2016-17 preseason poll, as well as for two weeks in December of 2002. The No. 5 ranking was the Ducks' highest ever in a preseason poll.

Under coach Dana Altman, Oregon has a 46-17 record (.730) during the second half of Pac-12 play. That breaks down to 4-5 in 2011, 7-2 in 2012, 5-4 in 2013, 7-2 in 2014, 8-1 in 2015, 7-2 in 2016 and 8-1 in 2017. Only Arizona (48) has won more over the last seven seasons. The last four seasons, Oregon is undefeated after Valentine's Day (22-0) in Pac-12 Conference games (credit to Pac-12 Network's JB Long for that note).

3-, 4-, 5-, 6- AND 7-YEAR WIN RECORDS SET

Oregon continued to extend the school records for the most wins over several periods. The 2016-17 squad extended the school record for wins over a seven-year period to 187, as well as six years (166), five years (142), four years (114) and three years (90).

DUCKS REACH 100 WINS

The Jan. 26 win over Utah was the program's 100th over the last four seasons. It is the third straight year that the Ducks have recorded 100 wins over four seasons.

SEASON TRENDS

Here's a look at some trends from the season. The Ducks are:

- * 22-0 when having more assists than opponents
- * 28-1 when blocking more shots than opponents
- * 27-1 when leading at the half
- * 25-1 when outrebounding opponents
- * 24-2 when having more steals than the opponent
- * 27-3 when scoring 70 or more points
- * 24-3 when committing fewer fouls than opponents

"O" CANADA

Three of the Ducks' top five scorers in 2016-17 were Canadian: Dillon Brooks (16.1 ppg), Chris Boucher (11.8 ppg) and Dylan Ennis (10.9 ppg). The trio combined for 61 points on Senior Day versus Colorado (Feb. 18, when "Oh Canada" was played pregame) and had 53 in a key road win at California on Feb. 22. They also combined for more than 50 points Dec. 13 versus Montana (51), Dec. 30 against USC (59) and Jan. 7 at Washington State (53). They are the latest in a recent line of Ducks, most from the Toronto area, to hail from the Great White North. The northern flock:

- * Devoe Joseph (Toronto, 2012)
- * Richard Amardi (Toronto, 2014)
- * Jason Calliste (Scarborough, Ont., 2014)
- * Dillon Brooks (Mississauga, Ont., 2015-17)
- * Chris Boucher (Montreal, 2016-17)
- * Dylan Ennis (Brampton, Ont., 2016-17)

BROOKS SETS JUNIOR CAREER SCORING RECORD

No Oregon player scored more points through their junior season than Dillon Brooks. He surpassed the great Ron Lee for that distinction during the Pac-12 Championship game. Brooks had 1,612 career points; Lee scored 1,527 points through his junior year (1975).

HEY MAN, NICE SHOT

Oregon has made at least one three-point field goal in 674 consecutive games. The Ducks' last game without a three-pointer was Feb. 6, 1997, versus Washington. Ironically, the Ducks held an opponent without a three-pointer for the first time in 10 seasons when Cal went 0-for-12 from three-point range on Jan. 6, 2016.

OREGON NETS SEVENTH STRAIGHT WINNING SEASON

The Ducks secured their seventh straight winning season in 2016-17. It was just the third time in school history that Oregon has strung together seven or more consecutive winning seasons, and the first such occasion in 77 years. The Ducks last had seven winning seasons in a row from 1934-40 for coaches William Reinhart and Howard Hobson. The program record is 10 consecutive seasons from 1923-32 under George Bohler and Reinhart.

2016-17 REVIEW

FOR THE DEFENSE

Under Dana Altman, Oregon is 126-14 when holding opponents under 70 points, including a 94-6 mark the last five seasons.

UNIVERSITY NETS MILESTONE

The Ducks earned the 1,600th win in school history Jan. 4 at Washington (now 1,619). More than a tenth of those wins (187) have come in the last seven seasons under coach Dana Altman.

BIG BLOCKERS ON THE ROSTER GIVE DUCKS PAC-12 RECORD

The top two career blocked shots leaders in Oregon history were on the Ducks' 2016-17 roster. Junior Jordan Bell became UO's all-time leader in just his 50th career game and finished the year with 235, which is also No. 5 in Pac-12 history. Nov. 21 against Georgetown, Chris Boucher passed Blair Rasmussen (116/1981-85) for second on the UO career list and ended his UO career with 189. Boucher set the UO single-season record with 110 as a junior and had 79 as a senior (fourth). Bell's 88 blocks in 2016-17 ranked third. As a team, Oregon blocked a Pac-12 record 248 shots in 2016-17. Oregon has set the school blocked shots record five times in seven seasons under Dana Altman, including three years in a row.

BROOKS CLIMBS SCORING LIST

Dillon Brooks ended his UO career ranked 10th in scoring. He was ninth in the Pac-12 in scoring at 16.1 points per game as a junior. The first UO player to reach 1,000 career points as a sophomore, Brooks finished his three-year Oregon career with 1,612 career points, becoming just the 10th player in program history to reach the 1,600-point threshold.

80-WIN CLUB

Three of the 10 players who have won 80 games during their Oregon careers were members of the 2016-17 team. Casey Benson played in 90 Duck wins - only the second player to reach that threshold - while Dillon Brooks appeared in 87 and Jordan Bell 82. Only Johnathan Loyd (97) played in more Duck wins than Benson.

NATION'S LONGEST ACTIVE HOME WIN STREAK REACHES 42 GAMES

Oregon's winning streak at Matthew Knight Arena is currently at 42 games, which is both the longest string of home wins in UO history, and the longest active home winning streak in the nation. The Ducks will carry that streak over into the 2017-18 season. Oregon last dropped a home game Jan. 8, 2015 (Arizona, 80-62). Two of Oregon's four longest home winning streaks have come under Dana Altman.

Streak	First Win	Last Win	Ended By
42 games	1/10/2015 - Arizona State	2/18/2017 - Colorado
23 games	11/15/2001 - Alabama State	12/28/2002 - UC Riverside	Arizona (1/2/2003)
23 games	2/13/1937 - Idaho	1/6/1939 - Washington State	Washington State (1/7/1939)
20 games	2/9/2012 - Washington	1/26/2013 - Washington	Colorado (2/2/2013)

UNDEFEATED AT HOME

Oregon finished undefeated at home in back-to-back seasons for the first time in school history. The Ducks were 17-0 in 2016-17 after going 18-0 in 2015-16. Overall, those are just the fifth and sixth undefeated home seasons in program history. The other four are 2001-02 (16-0), 1937-38 (16-0), 1925-26 (6-0) and 1911-12 (7-0).

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

The Ducks are 110-13 (.894) all-time at Matthew Knight Arena since the building opened in 2011.

RECORD ATTENDANCE AT MATTHEW KNIGHT ARENA

Oregon had its best home attendance figures in 39 seasons. The Ducks averaged 9,895 fans per home game (17 home games), which was the program's highest since averaging 9,984 in 1977-78. The 2016-17 season average was higher than the final capacity at McArthur Court (9,087). The Ducks also had seven sellouts in the seventh season at MKA, which matched the total number sellouts in the arena's first six seasons.

RANKED FOES AT MATTHEW KNIGHT ARENA

No. 5 Arizona was the second top-five team to visit Matthew Knight Arena in 2016-17 (85-58, Oregon). On Dec. 28, No. 2 UCLA became the highest-ranked team to play at MKA (an 89-87 Duck win). Oregon is 9-1 all-time versus ranked foes in Matthew Knight Arena.

UNDEFEATED NO MORE

By defeating No. 2 UCLA and No. 22 USC to open up Pac-12 play Dec. 28-30, Oregon became the first team since Kentucky in 2004 to beat undefeated AND ranked conference opponents in back-to-back games. It's believed to be the first time that has ever happened in the history of the Pac-12 Conference.

WINNING STREAK NOTES

Oregon's 17-game winning streak early in the 2016-17 season was the longest in program history, breaking a 104 year-old school record. The previous mark of 15 wins in a row covered the 1911-12 and 1912-13 seasons. Those early teams were coached by legendary track and field mentor Bill Hayward. Oregon's all-time longest winning streaks:

17 games	11-22-2016 to 1-26-2017
15 games	2-14-1912 to 1-31-1913
14 games	1-31-1925 to 2-19-1926
	12-27-1926 to 1-24-1927
	12-21-1935 to 1-17-1936
	12-3-1937 to 1-14-1938
	2-26-1946 to 1-3-1947
13 games	2-24-1939 to 12-12-1939

2016-17 REVIEW

BIG BOARDS

Oregon grabbed its highest rebound total in decades when the Ducks corralled a Matthew Knight Arena record 67 Dec. 3 versus Savannah State. That was the most by the Ducks in at least two decades (records are incomplete), and came within shouting distance of the school record of 77 (vs. Brigham Young, 1-28-1955).

VETERANS OFF THE FLOOR

Oregon has a trio of support staff members who recorded milestones in 2016-17. Athletic trainer Clay Jamieson reached his 600th game on the Oregon bench when the Ducks faced Georgetown Nov. 21 in Maui. He's only missed three games since joining the Oregon staff in 1998-99. Oregon IMG radio announcer Jerry Allen finished his 30th season calling basketball games for the Ducks. The longest streak belongs to public address announcer Don Essig, who saw his 50th season on the P.A. in 2016-17.

DUCKS TIE BLOCKS RECORD

Oregon tied the school and Matthew Knight Arena record with 13 blocked shots in the Nov. 11 season opener versus Army. Jordan Bell led the way with six.

SEC DOUBLE-UP

For the first time in program history, the Ducks defeated two teams from the Southeastern Conference - Tennessee and Alabama - in the same season.

DUCKS IN THE NBA

Oregon had two players in the NBA in 2016-17, Aaron Brooks (ninth season) and Joseph Young (second season) who both played for the Indiana Pacers.

DUCKS IN THE D-LEAGUE

Oregon had three players in the NBA Development League in 2016-17. Elgin Cook (2014-16) was with the Santa Cruz Warriors, Michael Dunigan (2009) was with the Canton Charge and E.J. Singler (2010-13) was with Raptors 905.

PLAYING AT AN ELITE LEVEL

The Ducks advanced to the Elite Eight for the seventh time in school history in 2016-17 (1939, 1945, 1960, 2002, 2007, 2016, 2017). Interestingly, six of Oregon's last eight NCAA Tournament losses have come to Final Four teams, including all five under Dana Altman.

NON-CONFERENCE RECORD AT MKA

The Ducks are now 51-2 all-time in non-conference games at Matthew Knight Arena. Oregon's 79-73 loss to Mississippi in 2014-15 was just the second non-conference home defeat while playing at Matthew Knight Arena. The other time Oregon lost a non-conference game at MKA was on Dec. 18, 2011, when Virginia defeated the Ducks 67-54. UO won 28 non-conference games in a row at MKA between the two losses.

USC STREAK

The Ducks' current streak of 14 straight wins over USC is Oregon's longest ever against the Trojans. UO's previous best in the series was nine straight from 1986-87 to 1990-91. The 14-game streak is also the Ducks' longest all-time against any conference opponent. Oregon defeated Washington State 13 consecutive times between 2002 and 2007. Among active streaks, the 14 games is second only to a current 15-game winning streak versus Gonzaga (1931-present).

HOME OPENING STREAK CONTINUES

The Ducks have now won 19 straight home openers. Oregon last dropped a home opener at the beginning of the 1997-98 season, 56-54 to Portland State.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

FIRST NCAA CHAMPIONS -- THE TALL FIRS

Oregon's 1939 basketball team earned a niche in sports history by winning the first NCAA championship basketball tournament ever held.

With a first unit composed of four native Oregonians and one Washingtonian, Coach Howard Hobson guided the Tall Firs to a 29-5 season record and Oregon's only NCAA basketball title.

The starting five listed three All-Americans in 6-foot 8-inch Urgel 'Slim' Wintermute from Longview, Wash., sharp-shooting Laddie Gale, a 6-4 forward from Oakridge and 5-8 guard Bobby Anet from Astoria. In addition, John Dick, a 6-4 forward from The Dalles, earned All-America honors the following season.

The guard spots were manned by Astorians Anet and 5-11 Wally Johansen. The two had teamed since their grade school days in Astoria.

For reserve strength, Hobson called on the likes of Bob Hardy, Red McNeely, Ford Mullen, Matt Pavalunas, Earl Sandness and Ted Sarpola. Gale, Wintermute, Anet, Johansen and Mullen played on three consecutive Northern Division championship teams.

The Ducks posted a 10-3 non-conference record, highlighted by a two-week Christmas tour that opened in Madison Square Garden with a 38-36 loss to CCNY and concluded with a 50-46 defeat at the hands of Stanford.

In between, however, the Tall Firs won six of seven games giving them a highly respectable 6-3 road mark against some of the nation's finest teams.

Oregon powered to the Northern Division title with a 14-2 record, sweeping four-game series from Idaho and Washington and capturing three of four battles each with Oregon State and Washington State.

That set the stage for a best-of-three playoff with Southern Division champion California at McArthur Court. Before capacity crowds, the Ducks captured the Pacific Coast Conference title in two games. Gale scored 18 points and Wintermute added 11 as the Ducks won the opener, 54-40, and Wintermute and Dick each tallied 16 points in the 53-47 triumph that put Oregon in the NCAA Western Playoffs.

Oregon quickly went to work in the Western Playoffs at Treasure Island, knocking off Texas, 56-41, and dumping Oklahoma, 55-37.

On March 27, the Tall Firs faced Ohio State on the neutral Northwestern University court at Evanston, Ill., for the national title. Dick scored 13 points and Gale and Anet contributed 10 apiece as the Ducks rolled to a 46-33 victory and the NCAA crown.

Huge crowds welcomed them in Portland and Eugene to climax one of the legendary events in the state's athletic history.

MCARTHUR COURT

With over 1,000 games contested within its walls, anyone who played in McArthur Court will testify it's a special place. Picture a triple-decked, classically architected pavilion. From the outside, you heard the roar of the crowd.

Inside, it was packed to the roof with the deafening cheers of more than 9,000 boisterous fans. Overhead, three balconies vibrated to the sound of Oregon's pep band and rally squad and the scoreboard suspended over midcourt appeared to quiver. The atmosphere was electric.

That's what it was like playing in old McArthur Court, which was better known by players and visitors alike as "The Pit." Opponents cringed at the thought of playing in Mac Court. Fans speak of it with unmatched reverence.

Named after Clifton N. (Pat) McArthur, a student-athlete and the university's first student body president, Mac Court was one of the classic jewels of Oregon's athletic program. Visitors likened the fabled West Coast facility to the old Boston Garden in the east.

McArthur Court was once deemed as a Pac-10 visiting team's least favorite place to play. In 2001, The Sporting News named it the "best gym in America," and in 1995 Sports Illustrated listed it as one of the 12 toughest places in the country to play at the collegiate level. Students sat at court-side and the atmosphere just before the start of a game was tingling.

Oregon's fans are an integral part of the ambience. The Ducks ranked annually near the top of attendance figures in the conference and the setting was the favorite of the many television producers and announcers who covered games at Mac Court. The flavor was easy to capture for their audiences.

McArthur Court was built in 1926, with the first game staged January 14, 1927, when the Oregon men's basketball team beat Willamette 38-10, and has since undergone numerous modifications and upgrades.

The Associated Students of the University of Oregon decided to "tax ourselves to build what we want" and their desires included an indoor arena. McArthur Court was thus paid for out of a $15 fee imposed by the ASUO. During 1932, one of the worst depression years, the mortgage was burned in a public ceremony after the Court had been completely paid for.

The capacity was raised from its original 6,000 seats to 7,600 with a series of additions between 1934-1953 and another expansion in 1955 upped the capacity to 9,100.

Further renovations allowed for as many as 10,063 fans when the upper two balconies were expanded to encircle the arena, but recent alterations to the floor-level seating have dropped the capacity to its final total of 9,087.

Rob Mullens
Director of Athletics
8th Year

Rob Mullens has presided over one of the most successful eras in the University of Oregon's history with Duck student-athletes setting milestone records both on the field and in the classroom. He has guided Oregon to consecutive top-10 finishes in the Directors' Cup, including an all-time high of ninth place in 2016-17. The Directors' Cup is a national assessment of an athletic department's overall achievements, for the first time in school history.

At the same time, Mullens has improved the Ducks' academic standards to where the University now averages more than 100 academic all-conference selections annually.

And just as important as the athletic and academic success, Oregon's philosophy of fiscal efficiency during Mullens' tenure has been recognized nationwide. The University is one of only a handful of institutions that is self-sufficient as the Oregon brand continues to grow. That is a direct reflection of our generous donors who continue to help us achieve important fundraising results.

Those three pillars – student-athlete experience, academic excellence and broad-based competitive excellence – comprise the foundation of Mullens' core beliefs as he oversees nearly 500 student-athletes and a budget of $110 million. Yet Mullens himself would tell you that it is the talented student-athletes, coaches and staff at the University of Oregon that are the department's most valuable assets.

Mullens was named the University's 12th director of intercollegiate athletics on July 15, 2010, after arriving from the University of Kentucky, where he served as deputy director of athletics and managed day-to-day operations for Kentucky's 22-sport athletics department, with an annual operating budget of $79 million.

Since Mullens' arrival in Eugene, the Duck football team has claimed three conference championship and played in the inaugural College Football Playoff Championship Game. The 2014-15 season saw the coronation of the University's first-ever Heisman Trophy winner, Marcus Mariota, as the Ducks won the Pac-12 title and then defeated undefeated Florida State in the Rose Bowl semifinal game.

The 2016-17 year will go down as one of the finest in school history. Oregon became the first college in the country to win the "triple crown" in women's track and field and cross country. The Women of Oregon captured the 2016 cross country title by a single point, scored a record number of points in winning the indoor track and field title, and then pulled off a stunning comeback to win the outdoor track and field title on the final event.

The men's basketball team returned to the Final Four for the first time since 1939, while the women's basketball team made the Elite Eight for the first time in school history. A year after winning it all, the men's golf team had a thrilling run to the championship match after winning the Pac-12 title for the first time since 1959.

Additionally in 2016-17, Oregon saw the softball team return to the College World Series, top-10 national finishes from acrobatics and tumbling, men's cross country and men's indoor and outdoor track and field, and NCAA Tournament appearances by volleyball, women's golf and men's and women's tennis.

A year earlier after claiming championships in 2015-16 in men's and women's indoor track and field, the Ducks' winning legacy was strengthened by the first-ever national championship for the men's golf team, won on its home course in Eugene at Eugene Country Club. The Ducks claimed the team championship just a couple days after Aaron Wise won the individual national championship.

Aided by the an Elite Eight appearance by the men's basketball team and an NCAA quarterfinals finish for women's golf, the Ducks' three team championships helped carry them to a 10th-place Directors' Cup finish, the highest in program history and the first ever top-10 finish.

Oregon and Oklahoma are the only programs Division I athletics to win three or more NCAA team titles each of the last two years. Oregon also became the only athletic department in the nation to have won multiple NCAA team titles each of the last five academic years.

In the history of the Directors' Cup, Oregon is the only program with 19 or fewer NCAA sports to place among the top 15 nationally, a feat the Ducks have done six times. Oregon also ranked among the top 25 for an eighth time in nine years. Seventeen of the University's 33 all-time national championships have been won in the last five years.

Off the field, Mullens saw three-quarters of UO student-athletes earn degrees. All told, more than 100 student-athletes won academic all-conference awards. Since the opening of the John E. Jaqua Academic Center for Student Athletes in 2010, 32 UO student-athletes have earned Academic All-America honors.

Other highlights of Mullens' tenure include four Women's College World Series appearances for the softball team, a trip to the NCAA championship game in volleyball, five consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament for men's basketball and a combined total of 16 national championships won by the Duck track and field and cross country squads.

Mullens arrived in Eugene as the Ducks opened their spectacular Matthew Knight Arena, which plays host to the school's men's and women's basketball teams, women's volleyball and acrobatics and tumbling, in addition to benefitting the entire Eugene-Springfield communities as a state-of-the-art venue for concerts, cultural forums and world-class entertainment. Other recent facilities include the Jaqua Center, the Hatfield-Dowling Football Complex, Jane Sanders Stadium (softball) and Pape' Field (soccer and lacrosse).

Mullens' background is in accounting and auditing, and he promoted sound fiscal management and self-sufficiency at the University of Kentucky. During his total of eight years at Kentucky, the athletic department's operating budget expanded by nearly 70 percent. Fundraising for the department hit record levels each of the past seven years prior to his departure.

Prior to being named deputy director of athletics at Kentucky in 2006, Mullens began as the university's executive associate director of athletics in 2002. He served at the University of Maryland from 1996 to 2002, starting as assistant director of athletics for business and ultimately as executive senior associate director of athletics and chief of staff.

The West Virginia native was senior athletics business manager at the University of Miami (Fla.) from 1994 to 1996, and prior to that he was an accountant/auditor at Ernst & Young in Raleigh, N.C.

The 47-year-old Mullens earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's in sport management from West Virginia University in 1991 and 1993, respectively. He and his wife, Jane, have two sons - Cooper and Tanner.
